AMENDED DECLARATION OF ROSS
MURRAY RE DISSEMINATION OF
THOMSON/TDA NOTICE TO CLASS
MEMBERS AND REQUESTS FOR EXCLUSION

1 I, Ross Murray, declare as follows:

2 1. I am employed by Gilardi & Co., LLC ("Gilardi"), located at 3301 Kerner Blvd.,
3 San Rafael, California. Gilardi was hired by class counsel as the Settlement Administrator in this 4 matter. I am over 21 years of age and am not a party to this action. I have personal knowledge of 5 the facts set forth herein and, if called as a witness, could and would testify competently thereto.

6 2 Gilardi was formed in 1984 to assist attorneys with securities, antitrust, consumer
7 protection class actions, and other similar matters. Gilardi specializes in designing, developing,
8 analyzing, and implementing settlement administration plans that support due process. During 9 the past 28 years Gilardi has administered class notice and class settlements in over 3,500 class 10 actions, and has distributed more than $20 billion in assets.

11 3. Between May 16 and May 29, 2012 Gilardi received from Plaintiffs' Counsel eight 12 files which included the names, and, where available, the addresses and electronic mail addresses
13 of all class members identified by Defendants in this matter. Gilardi formatted the list for mailing
14 purposes, removed duplicate records, removed known Defendant entities, researched company 15 names lacking addresses and added addresses where found, and processed the names and 16 addresses through the National Change of Address Database to update any addresses on file with 17 the United States Postal Service ("USPS").

18 4. On June 26, 2015, Gilardi caused the Thomson/TDA Notice to be printed and 19 mailed to the 16,914 unique names and addresses on the class list. Gilardi delivered the 20 Thomson/TDA Notices to the United States Post Offices located in Santa Rosa, California. A 21 true and correct copy of the Thomson/TDA Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

22 5. On June 26, 2015, Gilardi caused the Notice to be electronically distributed to the 23 873 unique electronic mail addresses on the class list.

24 6. On or before June 7, 2012, Gilardi established a case-dedicated website at 25 www.CRTPurchaseAntitrustSettlement.com. There, potential class members can view and 26 print copies of the CPT Settlement Agreement, the Philips Settlement Agreement, the Notice, and 27 the Order Granting Settlement Class Certification and Preliminary Approval of Class Action

12 Thomson/TDA Preliminary Approval Order, the Order In Re Class Certification With Respect To 13 The Thomson And Mitsubishi Defendants, the Amendments To Order In Re Class Certification
14 With Respect To The Thomson And Mitsubishi Defendants, and the Order Approving Claim
15 Form And Directing Notice To Class Members Regarding Distribution of Settlement Fund. Class
16 members can also view Frequently Asked Questions and obtain Gilardi's contact information.
17 On or before June 26, 2015, Gilardi caused the "Frequently Asked Questions" and "Dates to 18 Remember" pages of the website www.CRTDirectPurchaserAntitrustSettlement.com to be 19 updated with all deadlines relevant to the Thomson/TDA settlement, as well as the Fairness
20 Hearing date.

21 7. On or before June 7, 2012, Gilardi activated a toll-free telephone number, 1-877-
22 224-3063, through which callers are able to connect with a live customer service representative
23 Monday through Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time. English and Spanish operators 24 are available.

25 8. Through its in-house advertising agency, Larkspur Design Group, Gilardi caused 26 the Summary Notice to be published in the national editions of the New York Times and the Wall
27 Street Journal on June 29, 2015. True and correct copies of the tear sheets provided by the New 28

1 York Times and the Wall Street Journal are attached hereto as Exhibits B and C.

2 9. The postmark deadline for class members to be excluded from the Thomson/TDA
3 Settlement Class was August 10, 2015. To date, Gilardi has received 16 timely requests for 4 exclusion from the settlement. A report detailing the requests for exclusion received at Gilardi is 5 attached hereto as Exhibit D.

6 10. The postmark deadline for class members to object to the Thomson/TDA
7 Settlement was August 10, 2015. To date, Gilardi has received zero (0) objections to the 8 settlement.

9 11. Sharp Manufacturing Company of America and Sharp Electronics Manufacturing
10 Company of America, Inc. submitted timely requests for exclusion by a letter postmarked June 11 29, 2015 and received by Gilardi on July 2, 2015. These entities were inadvertently omitted from 12 Exhibit D to the Declaration of Ross Murray re Dissemination of Thomson/TDA Notice to Class 13 Members and Requests for Exclusion (Aug. 24, 2015) (Dkt. No. 4017). Exhibit D hereto has been 14 corrected to include these entities.

15 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this 16 declaration was executed this 26th day of August, 2015 at San Rafael, California.

If You Bought A Cathode Ray Tube Product, A Class Action Settlement May Affect You.

Cathode Ray Tube (CRT) Products include Cathode Ray Tubes and finished products that contain a Cathode Ray Tube such as Televisions and Computer Monitors.

A Federal Court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

Important Dates
Deadline to Request Exclusion from Settlement Class	August 10, 2015
Deadline to Object to the Settlement	August 10, 2015
Fairness Hearing	October 23, 2015, at 10:00 a.m. at the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, San Francisco Division, in Courtroom 1 on the 17th Floor, at 450 Golden Gate Ave., San Francisco, CA

A class action lawsuit that includes direct purchasers of CRT Products is currently pending.

Plaintiffs claim that Defendants (listed below) and co-conspirators engaged in an unlawful conspiracy to fix, raise, maintain or stabilize the prices of Cathode Ray Tubes. Plaintiffs further claim that direct purchasers of televisions and monitors that contain a cathode ray tube from the Defendants may recover for the effect that the cathode ray tube conspiracy had on the prices of televisions and monitors. Plaintiffs allege that, as a result of the unlawful conspiracy involving cathode ray tubes, they and other direct purchasers paid more for CRT Products than they would have paid absent the conspiracy. Defendants deny Plaintiffs' claims.

A settlement has been reached with Thomson SA (now known as Technicolor SA) and Thomson Consumer Electronics, Inc. (now known as Technicolor USA, Inc.) (collectively, "Thomson"); and Technologies Displays Americas LLC (formerly known as Thomson Displays Americas LLC) ("TDA"). The companies are together referred to as the "Settling Defendants."

Your legal rights will be affected whether you act or don't act. This Notice includes information on the Settlement and the continuing lawsuit. Please read the entire Notice carefully.

These Rights and Options – and deadlines to exercise them – are explained in this notice.

BASIC INFORMATION1. Why did I get this notice?

You or your company may have directly purchased Cathode Ray Tubes (CRTs) or certain products containing those tubes between March 1, 1995 and November 25, 2007. A direct purchaser is a person or business who bought a CRT, or a television or computer monitor containing a CRT directly from one or more of the Defendants, co-conspirators, affiliates, or subsidiaries themselves, as opposed to an intermediary (such as a retail store).

You have the right to know about the litigation and about your legal rights and options before the Court decides whether to approve the Settlement.

The notice explains the litigation, the settlement, and your legal rights.

The Court in charge of the case is the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, and the case is called In re Cathode Ray Tube (CRT) Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1917. The people who sued are called Plaintiffs and the companies they sued are called Defendants.

The lawsuit alleges that Defendants and Co-Conspirators conspired to raise and fix the prices of CRTs and the CRTs contained in certain finished products for over ten years, resulting in overcharges to direct purchasers of those CRTs and certain finished products containing CRTs. The complaint describes how the Defendants and Co-Conspirators allegedly violated the U.S. antitrust laws by establishing a global cartel that set artificially high prices for, and restricted the supply of CRTs and the televisions and monitors that contained them. Defendants deny Plaintiffs' allegations. The Court has not decided who is right.

4. Why is there a Settlement but the litigation is continuing?

Only some of the Defendants have agreed to settle the lawsuit. This notice concerns a settlement with Thomson and TDA. Plaintiffs have also reached seven previous settlements with Chunghwa Picture Tubes Ltd., Chunghwa Picture Tubes (Malaysia) Sdn. 5. What is a Cathode Ray Tube Product?

If the Plaintiffs obtain money or benefits as a result of a trial or future settlement, you will be notified about those outcomes, if any, at that time. Important information about the case will be posted on the website, www.CRTDirectPurchaserAntitrustSettlement.com as it becomes available. Please check the website to be kept informed about any future developments.

THE SETTLEMENT CLASS

7. How do I know if I'm part of the Settlement Class?

The Settlement Class includes:

All persons and entities who, between March 1, 1995 and November 25, 2007, directly purchased a CRT Product in the United States from any defendant or subsidiary or affiliate thereof, or any co-conspirator ("Settlement Class").

8. What does the Settlement provide?

The Settlement with Thomson and TDA provides for a payment in the amount of $9,750,000 in cash to the Settlement Class. The Settling Defendants also agreed to cooperate with the Plaintiffs in providing certain information about the allegations in the complaint. In addition, the Settling Defendants' sales remain in the case for the purpose of computing damages against the remaining non-settling Defendants.

More details are in the Settlement Agreement, available at www.CRTDirectPurchaserAntitrustSettlement.com.

9. When can I get a payment?

No money will be distributed to any Class Member yet. The lawyers will pursue the lawsuit against the Non-Settling Defendants to see if any future settlements or judgments can be obtained in the case and then be distributed together, to reduce expenses.

Any future distribution of the Settlement Funds will be done on a pro rata basis. You will be notified in the future when and where to send a claim form. DO NOT SEND ANY CLAIMS NOW.

In the future, each class member's pro rata share of the Settlement Fund will be determined by computing each valid claimant's total CRT Product purchases divided by the total valid CRT Product purchases claimed. This percentage is multiplied by the Net Settlement Fund (total settlements minus all costs, attorneys' fees, and expenses) to determine each claimant's pro rata share of the Settlement Fund. To determine your CRT Product purchases, CRT tubes (CPTs and CDTs) are calculated at full value while CRT televisions are valued at 50% and CRT computer monitors are valued at 75%.

In summary, all valid claimants will share in the settlement funds on a pro rata basis determined by the CRT value of the product you purchased - tubes 100%, monitors 75% and televisions 50%.

10. What are my rights with regard to the Settlement Class?

Remain in the Settlement Class: If you wish to remain a member of the Settlement Class you do not need to take any action at this time.

Get out of the Settlement Class: If you wish to keep any of your rights to sue the Settling Defendants about the claims in this case, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement Class. You will not get any money from the settlement if you exclude yourself from the Settlement Class.

To exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you must send a letter that includes the following:

- Your name, address and telephone number,
- A statement saying that you want to be excluded from In re Cathode Ray Tube (CRT) Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1917, Thomson/TDA Settlement; and

THE SETTLEMENT APPROVAL HEARING

12. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing at 10:00 a.m. on October 23, 2015, at the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, San Francisco Division, in Courtroom 1 on the 17th Floor, at 450 Golden Gate Ave. The hearing may be moved to a different date or time without additional notice, so it is a good idea to check the class website for information. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate. If there are objections or comments, the Court will consider them at that time. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement. We do not know how long these decisions will take.

13. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Interim Lead Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have, but you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection or comment, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay another lawyer to attend, but it's not required.

14. May I speak at the hearing?

If you want your own lawyer instead of Interim Lead Counsel to speak at the Fairness Hearing, you must give the Court a paper that is called a "Notice of Appearance." The Notice of Appearance should include the name and number of the lawsuit (In re Cathode Ray Tube (CRT) Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1917), and state that you wish to enter an appearance at the Fairness Hearing. It also must include your name, address, telephone number, and signature. Your "Notice of Appearance" must be postmarked no later than August 10, 2015. You cannot speak at Hearing if you previously asked to be excluded from the Settlement.

The Notice of Appearance must be sent to the addresses listed in Question 10.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

15. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

Yes. The Court has appointed the law firm of Saveri & Saveri, Inc. to represent you as "Interim Lead Counsel." You do not have to pay Interim Lead Counsel. If you want to be represented by your own lawyers, and have that lawyer appear in court for you in this case, you may hire one at your own expense.

16. How will the lawyers be paid?

Class Counsel are not asking for attorneys' fees at this time. At a future time, Interim Lead Counsel will ask the Court for attorneys' fees not to exceed one-third (33.3%) of this or any future Settlement Fund plus reimbursement of their costs and expenses, in accordance with the provisions of the Settlement Agreement. Interim Lead Counsel may also request that an amount be paid to each of the Class Representatives who helped the lawyers on behalf of the whole Class.

REACTION TO MARRIAGE RULING

With Same-Sex Decision, Evangelical Churches Address New Reality changing legal landscape on gay rights will inevitably lead to constraints on religious freedom.

But the challenges are not only external. To a degree that is rarely acknowledged in the public square, many evangelical churches are also grappling with internal questions. Especially in and around large urban areas, pastors increasingly report that some openly gay and lesbian Christians are opting to worship in evangelical congregations (“more and more are coming to our church,” Mr. Allison said) and that heterosexual worshipers are struggling over the church’s posture because friends or family members are gay.

“There is a growing desire on the part of some, even within the church, to combine their Christian faith with the acceptance of homosexual practice,” the Wheaton Bible statement acknowledged.

The result has been an obvious change in tone and emphasis — but not teaching or policy — at many churches. Almost all evangelical churches oppose same-sex marriage, and many do not allow gays and lesbians to serve in leadership positions unless they are celibate. Some pastors, however, now either minimize their preaching on the subject or speak of homosexuality in carefully contextualized sermons emphasizing that everyone is a sinner and that Christians should love and welcome all.

“Evangelicals are coming to the realization that they hold a minority view in the culture, and that on this issue, they have lost the home-field advantage,” said Ed Stetzer, the executive director of LifeWay Research, which surveys evangelicals. “They are learning to speak with winsomeness and graciousness, which, when their view was the majority, evangelicals tended not to do.” A handful of evangelical churches have changed their positions. City Church in San Francisco, for example, has dropped its rule that gays and lesbians commit to celibacy to become members, and GracePointe Church in Tennessee has said gays and lesbians can serve in leadership roles and receive the sacrament of marriage. Ken Wilson, who founded the Vineyard Church in Ann Arbor, Mich., published an open letter calling for a greater embrace of gays and lesbians in evangelical churches. But Mr. Stetzer said they are the exceptions.

“Well-known evangelicals who have shifted on same-sex marriage, you could fit them all in an S.U.V.,” Mr. Stetzer said. “If you do shift, you become a media celebrity, but the shift among practing evangelicals is minimal.”

Polling supports that assertion. Even in an era when most Americans, including a majority of Catholics and white mainline Protestants, support same-sex marriage, among white evangelicals just 27 percent are in favor while 70 percent are opposed, according to the Pew Research Center.

“Just because it’s legal doesn’t mean it’s ethical,” said the Rev. Wilfredo De Jesús, the senior pastor of New Life Covenant Church, an Assemblies of God megachurch that has nearly 20,000 members on multiple campuses, most of them in Chicago.

“We won’t marry two men. That goes against our beliefs,” said Mr. De Jesús, who is known as Pastor Choco. He, like others interviewed, noted that over 2,000 years of Christian history, the church has often been at odds with the culture.

“We’re prepared to go to prison, or whatever occurs, but the church cannot change,” he said.

But even in his church family, there are gays and lesbians. Fa’Darryl Brown, 34, a gay man who worships at New Life Southeast in Chicago, a “daughter church” of New Life Covenant, said simply, “I’m not aware of Choco’s stance.” Mr. Brown said that his local pastor had described homosexuality as a sin, but that “he doesn’t make you feel hell-bound.”

“I just see the subject of sexuality as one that we may have to agree to disagree on,” he said. “It doesn’t mean that I can’t sit under his ministry.”

The court decision did not come as a complete surprise, of course. Wheaton Bible began working on its statement on Tuesday, anticipating the ruling. And same-sex marriage was already legal in Illinois, as in many other states, before the Supreme Court decision; it was legalized here last year.

In Libertyville, Ill., at one of the main campuses of a nondenominational church called The Chapel, which draws about 6,000 worshipers each weekend across eight campuses, the pastor, Scott Chapman, chose this weekend not to talk about the Supreme Court but to stick to a planned sermon on Moses.

Two years ago, he had preached at length on homosexuality, but only after a series of meetings with gay and lesbian worshipers; in that sermon, he repeatedly referred to homosexuality as a sin, but also apologized for the behavior of Christians. “For far too long, in far too many places, far too frequently,” he said then, “gay and lesbian people have been treated very badly in the name of Jesus Christ, and it’s not O.K.”

In an interview, Mr. Chapman said that he did not support same-sex marriage, but that “we have a substantial number of folks in our church in that lifestyle.”

“We want to be a place that loves everybody and is open to everybody,” he added.

After The Chapel’s Saturday evening worship, one of the church’s members, Kevin Woodside, 51, said he felt uncomfortable watching news coverage of the Supreme Court decision and seeing the angry signs held by some opponents.

“It’s hard to look at that as a Christian response to this,” he said. “I don’t want to judge anybody on this. We all come here in different states of brokenness.”

At Wheaton Bible on Sunday, Mr. Allison said that when he was delivering the statement reiterating his church’s opposition to same-sex marriage, he looked out over the crowd and guessed that 5 percent to 10 percent of those present disagreed. Interviews at the church’s cafe bore that out: Even as he was presiding at a late service, a few attendees at the early service volunteered that they did not share their church’s reaction to the Supreme Court decision.

“It’s not a sad day. It’s a happy day,” said one, who asked not to be quoted by name while disagreeing with a church leader preaching in the next room. “The court made the right decision,” said another.

Far more of those interviewed said they supported the church’s position that marriage should be reserved for opposite-sex couples. John Mulsoff, 66, who was playing with his grandson, a Bible at his elbow, during a morning break, said he and his wife discussed the issue during a long car ride the previous day.

“I’m very conflicted about it,” he said. “I believe, as our church does, that marriage should be between a man and a woman, but I don’t believe in discrimination, and I can’t say how I would deal with it if I had a son or a daughter in that situation.”

Claudia Velazquez, 21, said: “I don’t agree with legalization, but I do respect the human beings. It does not take away from their character, and at the end they’re a creation of God, too.”

CRT stands for “Cathode Ray Tube.” “Cathode Ray Tube (CRT) Products” include Cathode Ray Tubes and finished products that contain a Cathode Ray Tube such as Televisions and Computer Monitors.

What is this lawsuit about?

The lawsuit alleges that Defendants and Co-Conspirators engaged in an unlawful conspiracy to fix, raise, maintain or stabilize the prices of CRTs. Plaintiffs further claim that direct purchasers of televisions and monitors that contain a cathode ray tube from the Defendants may recover for the effect that the cathode ray tube conspiracy had on the prices of televisions and monitors. Plaintiffs allege that, as result of the unlawful conspiracy, they and other direct purchasers paid more for CRT Products than they would have absent the conspiracy. Defendants deny Plaintiffs’ claims.

Who’s included in the settlement?

The settlement includes all persons and entities who, between March 1, 1995 and November 25, 2007, directly purchased a CRT Product in the United States from any defendant or subsidiary or affiliate thereof, or any co-conspirator (“Settlement Class”).

Who are the Settling Defendants?

A settlement has been reached with Thomson SA (now known as Technicolor SA) and Thomson Consumer Electronics, Inc. (now known as Technicolor USA, Inc.) (collectively, “Thomson”); and Technologies Displays Americas LLC (formerly known as Thomson Displays Americas LLC) (“TDA”). The companies are together referred to as the “Settling Defendants.” A complete list of Defendants and Co-Conspirators is set out in the Long Form Notice available at www.CRTDirectPurchaserAntitrustSettlement.com.

What does the settlement provide?

The Thomson/TDA settlement provides for the payment of $9,750,000 in cash to the Settlement Class. The Settling Defendants agreed to cooperate with the Plaintiffs in providing certain information about the allegations in the Complaint. Money will not be distributed to Class members at this time. The lawyers will pursue the lawsuit against the other Defendants to see if any future settlements or judgments can be obtained in the case and then be distributed together, to reduce expenses.

What are my rights?

If you wish to remain a member of the Settlement Class you do not need to take any action at this time. If you do not want to be legally bound by the settlement, you must exclude yourself in writing by August 10, 2015 or you will not be able to sue, or continue to sue, the Settling Defendants about the legal claims in this case.

If you wish to comment on or disagree with any aspect of the proposed settlement, you must do so in writing no later than August 10, 2015. The settlement agreement, along with details on how to object to it, is available at www.CRTDirectPurchaserAntitrustSettlement.com. The U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California will hold a Fairness Hearing at 10:00 a.m. on October 23, 2015 at the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, 450 Golden Gate Ave., San Francisco, CA 94102, Courtroom 1, 17th Floor. The hearing may be moved to a different date or time without additional notice, so it is a good idea to check the class website for information.

The Court has appointed the law firm of Saveri & Saveri, Inc. to represent Direct Purchaser Class members as Interim Lead Class Counsel. At the Fairness Hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate. If there are objections or comments, the Court will consider them at that time. You may appear at the hearing, but don’t have to. We do not know how long these decisions will take. Please do not contact the Court about this case.

to eliminate the income tax by increasing and broadening the sales tax. He failed to engage his own party in advance, and Republican legislators balked.

Among them was Senator Tom Saviello. “The governor is a businessman, a former C.E.O. whose method is to do what he wants,” Mr. Saviello said of Mr. LePage, who was the general manager of a 14-store discount chain. “But I have to figure out what’s best for the people of Franklin County.”

Mr. LePage also has refused to release money for bond issues approved by voters. And he declared that he would veto every bill sponsored by a Democrat until Democrats supported his proposed constitutional amendment to eliminate Maine’s income tax. Democrats said the governor had no plan for filling the $1.7 billion hole that eliminating the income tax would create.

In mid-June, after the Legislature passed a budget that did not include his tax-cut proposals, the governor showed off a Christmas tree outside his office. It was adorned with the pictures of legislators he said had loaded up the budget with wasteful spending projects, often called pork. He produced a pink plastic pig and squeaked it.

And he extended his veto threat to include any bill sponsored by Republicans, saying they had conspired with Democrats to pass the budget.

“I want to show that for five months they wasted our time, and this time I’m going to waste a little of their time,” said Mr. LePage, who went on to veto 64 line items in the budget.

Mr. Bennett, the Republican Party chairman, said Mr. LePage felt justified in taking these steps because the budget “didn’t reflect the reason he got re-elected.”

The effect has been to unify the Republicans and Democrats. “Right now, the Legislature is An angry and tired Legislature fights back with overrides.

united in lock step and opposed to the governor,” said Mark Brewer, a political scientist at the University of Maine. “They view this as an institutional fight rather than a partisan fight.”

All of this set the stage for the fury that erupted last week when Mr. LePage threatened to halt state financing to the Good Will-Hinckley charter school if it allowed Mr. Eves to become its president.

“Speaker Eves has been an ardent foe of charter schools for his entire political career; then he turns around and gets hired to run a charter school — whose board is chaired by Eves’s own State House employee — for a cushy job worth about $150,000 in total compensation,” Mr. LePage said in a statement explaining his actions.

Mr. Bennett said that the governor had discretion over the use of the money in question and that he was well within his legal rights to withhold it.

Representative Jeffrey Evangelos, an independent, was among those who began researching impeachment proceedings last week on the grounds of abuse of authority, misuse of assets and unbecoming conduct.

“You can’t leverage state assets to intimidate a private entity,” he said.

The state’s biggest newspaper, The Portland Press Herald, has called for a House investigation of the Eves affair and said that, unless new information emerged justifying the governor’s action, he should be impeached and tried by the Senate.

So far, more than a dozen independents and Democrats have joined the impeachment effort, Mr. Evangelos said, but many more are holding back.

Mr. Katz, chairman of the Government Oversight Committee, said on Friday that he expected the committee and the Office of Program Evaluation and Government Accountability to begin an investigation of the episode.

He added with a sigh: “Summer can’t come soon enough.”

Jailed Crime Boss’s Tip to Students: Go to Law School

BOSTON (AP) — James (Whitey) Bulger, the former Boston crime boss, has offered advice for three high school girls who wrote to him for a history project: Crime does not pay.

Mr. Bulger sent the handwritten letter, dated Feb. 24, from the federal prison in Florida where he is serving two life sentences, The Boston Globe reported Sunday.

“My life was wasted and spent foolishly, brought shame and suffering on my parents and siblings and will end soon,” he wrote.

“Advice is a cheap commodity. Some seek it from me about crime. I know only one thing for sure: If you want to make crime pay go to law school.”

Mr. Bulger, 85, was convicted in 2013 on racketeering charges that included playing a role in 11 murders. He spent 16 years as one of the nation’s most wanted fugitives before he was captured in California in 2011. His lawyers are appealing his conviction next month before the federal appeals court in Boston.

The three 17-year-olds at Apponequet Regional High School in Lakeville, Mass., chose him for a National History Day competition entry on leadership and legacy. Their project took first place in the district but did not place in the state competition.
